

Book of Secrets

Balance Of Power

-Make secret these words and seal up the book until the time of the end. Too many lines to read between

Too many minds are coming close to the extreme

Are you the named are you pure

Dare you believe in something never seen before [bridge]

Secrets soon to be secrets soon to be told

Take another look at the open book

Secrets soon to be secrets soon to be told

Take another look at the open book [chorus]

The book of secrets

The words of wiser men than I

The book of secrets

The code is falling falling from the sky

Falling from the sky, falling from the sky Is this the dawn of something new

The clock is ticking and there's nothing I can do

In place of guessing what's to come

Unlock the secrets close your eyes

And kiss the sun [bridge] [chorus] At the close of the twentieth century,

We are threatened

With the kind of chaos that

The world has never faced before.

We have built weapons

That can destroy human civilisation in a single day,

These weapons may be on the loose. [bridge] [chorus] -But neither in heaven nor earth was there a single one able to open the scroll or look into

it. And as for you men of vision everything will become like the words of the book that has been sealed up.
