Just You

Solas

With his big brown eyes
He came my way
I didn't know then
What he had to say
I could tell
That he felt bad
By the way he looked
That he was sad, oh, yeah
Sometimes you hurt me, baby
I don't know why
I'll always love you, baby
'Til the day I die
But when you look at fellas
Baby, I get jealous
I only live my life for you
Anything you say I'll do
I'll live for you
I'll die for you
I'll even climb
The mountain high for you
Just you
Thought right then
He'd break my heart
I could feel
The teardrops start
Why didn't he know

I love him so?
I could never
Let him go, oh, no
I'd never hurt you, baby
Tell you why
I'm gonna love you
'Til the day I die
When I look at fellas
Baby, don't get jealous
I only live my life for you
Anything you say, I'll do
I'll live for you

I'll die for you
I'll even climb
The mountain high for you
Just you
I love you, just you
Nobody else, just you
I love you, only you
Every day, every day, just you
I'll live for you
I'll die for you
I'll even climb
The mountain high for you
Just you
