

Prince of Babylon

Nad

Verse 1:

I'm the one who opens doors of hope
To a new world full of joy and love it's my time to make a great impact

let's get together and lets reactI clean the world, make the difference go

I stand for love, not the war for gold

I spread the seeds, you let it grow

Cause we all aim for a brand new worldChorus:

Here's a mystery, I reveal to you

Older than Egypt and the pharaohs too

Tonight the stars so bright

With sand under your feet

Feel the rhythm it can set you free

I'm the prince of Babylon

I'm the prince of Babylon

I'm the prince of Babylon

The Chosen one

Verse 2:

Enough of the anger

Spread love to the stranger

I build for the better and let's get together

Like water through fire

I reach my desire

I speak for my people

My voice is a giantI clean the world, make the difference go

I stand for love, not the war for gold

I spread the seeds, you let it grow

Cause we all aim for a brand new worldChorus:

Here's a mystery I reveal to you

Older than Egypt and the pharaohs too

Tonight the stars so bright

With sand under your feet

Feel the rhythm it can set you free

I'm the prince of Babylon

I'm the prince of Babylon

I'm the prince of Babylon

The Chosen one....
