Grits Ain't Groceries

Edwin Mccain

If I don't love you baby
Grits ain't grocery
Eggs ain't poultry
And Mona Lisa was a man
All around the world, I'd rather be a fly
I'd light on my baby and stay with my woman till I die
With a toothpick in my hand I'd dig a ten foot ditch
And run all through the jungle fighting lions with a switch
Because you know I love you baby
Oh you know I love you baby yeah
Now if I don't love you baby I tell you
Grits ain't grocery
Eggs ain't poultry
And Mona Lisa was a man
All around the world I've got blisters on my feet
I'm trying to find my baby and bring her home with me
You better run into me baby and be convinced

If you don't run it to me right now woman
You ain't got no sense
Because you know I love you baby
Oh you know I love you baby yeah
Well if I don't love you baby I tell you
Grits ain't grocery
Eggs ain't poultry
And Mona Lisa was a man
All around the world I never will forget
I lost all my money, my woman, and my pet
But I've got to have you baby and I will settle for nothing less
Give up all my good time baby and stay for happiness
Because you know I love you baby yeah
Oh you know I love you baby yeah
Well if I don't love you baby I tell you
Grits ain't grocery
Eggs ain't poultry
And Mona Lisa was a man

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/