Goodbye

Plankeye

It's difficult to say goodbye after only one life
The rain will fall down replenishing all of our broken dreams
And this burning tree that's withering will bloom again
Would you believe?Goodbye, goodbye, walk away
It's time to say
Goodbye, goodbye
It's time to sayAnd now all that's left pictures on the wall
Memories and stories that are told
The more oft told, the bigger they get
Create a legacy, lest we forgetGoodbye, goodbye, walk away
It's time to say
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Goodbye, goodbye, walk away
It's time to sayNo longer can I hold on
To this defeated change in heart, I swear
It's time to sing "Fare Thee well" to life as I know it
You know I will be, you know I will be, yes it will be still
Be still, be still, be still, be still
