Little Blimp

The Joy Formidable

Wind yourself, wind yourself tightly to me
Drag yourself, nostalgia were ready to leave
Well ride this, well ride this easily
Well ride this, well ride this surely
Paddle me closer, I promise you never look back downThe taken time, two ends are starting to tie
We drained it all, is friction, and skinning as hard
Well ride this, well ride this easily
Well ride this, well ride this surely
Paddle me closer, I promise you never look back downWere no metaphor, were numbness the king
We took control, remind yourself of yourself,
Working with them, it sounds out of place
Wind ourselves, wind ourselves, stronger againWell ride this, well ride this easily
Well ride this, well ride this surely
Paddle me closer, I promise you never look back down
