

Live Like You're Dying

Lenka

One of these days you'll be under the covers
You'll be under the table and you'll realize
That all of your days are numbered, all of them one to one hundred
All of them millions, all of them trillions So what are you gonna do with them all?
You can not trade them in for more, no, no Take every moment, you know that you own them
It's all you can do, use what's been given to you Gimme a reason to fight the feeling
That there's nothing here for me
'Cause none of it's easy, I know it wasn't meant to be
I know it's all up to me, it's all up to me So what am I gonna do with my time? I'll take every moment, I know that I own them
It's all up to you to do whatever you choose
Live like you're dying and never stop trying
It's all you can do, use what's been given to you All of the moments you didn't notice gone in the blink of an eye
And all of the feelings you can't help feeling no matter how you try Take every moment, you know that you own them
It's all up to you to do whatever you choose
Live like you're dying and never stop trying
It's all you can do, use what's been given to you Live like you're dying and never stop trying
It's all up to you, use what's been given to you
