Soul Shaker

Motion Device

The rhythm starts to resonate
Right down to the core
My nerves start to alleviate
As the pounding hits the floor
Rumbling through my body
While my senses open wide
I feel a quake and shiver
Iâ€™m so amplified

One, two, three, four
Shake for me and rattle the cord
Shake it baby shake
Rock that rabbit hole
What you find will free your soul
Free your soul

The waves begin to vibrate
Up and down my walls
I can feel it start to stimulate
As I grow ten feet tall
The space around me is shattering
The ground below is cracked
Mind and spirit is disconnected
Might not make it back

One, two, three, four
Shake for me and rattle the cord
Shake it baby shake
Rock that rabbit hole
What you find will free your soul
Free your soul

One, two, three, four
Shake for me and rattle the cord
Shake it baby shake
Rock that rabbit hole
What you find will free your soul
Free your soul
