

The Real Oi!

Close Shave

Think you're respected in having a say
Who wants to listen to you anyway
Think that you're up there and you got it sussed
You haven't got a clue pal so listen to us

We're here for the Punk, we're here for the Oi!
Here for the music you trying to destroy
We're here for the Punk, we're here for the Oi!
We won't take no party line cos' we're the real Oi!

You're an angry old man behind a computer screen
Makes a lot of noise but never is seen
You stand on a stage, spouding your shitte
Just because we don't agree, you say we're extreme right

We're here for the Punk, we're here for the Oi!
Here for the music you trying to destroy
We're here for the Punk, we're here for the Oi!
We won't take no party line cos' we're the real Oi!

You scene innocents with bullshit and lies
What you can't see is you that's despised
You twist what we say to make your point of view
So why do people listen to assholes like you?
