

Unforgotten

Roxanna

You're still in my senses
You're still with me
You're bitter; you're sweet
I spend days
With thoughts of you
So lost in this fantasy And I still wonder why
You said goodbye
So here I am
With heart in hand
Heartbroken My love there's nothing
That I can do
You know I'll never be completely over you
I still adore you
There's no one else
I want to let you go, be rescued from myself
Unforgotten, Stay with me
Unforgotten You're everywhere
You're in my dreams
I can't escape from this memory
I wish I had
A way to heal
And I pray one day
