Yes

Kierra "kiki" Sheard

Yes
Why say no, when you can yes?
It's so easy, come on and say yes
You can change your life, if you can say yes
Not tomorrow but today, yes
Why say no, when you can yes?
It's so easy, come on and say yes
You can change your life, if you can say yes
Not tomorrow but today, yes
Everybody's got them days when they down
No one to call on, nobody around
You wanna smile but you can't smile
Hurt so many times you can't count
All the tears you've cried
So now you hold it all inside
Falling apart, can't keep it together
So many questions, well, here's the answer
Why say no, when you can yes?
It's so easy, come on and say yes
You can change your life, if you can say yes
Not tomorrow but today, yes
Why say no, when you can yes?
It's so easy, come on and say yes
You can change your life, if you can say yes
Not tomorrow but today, yes
Voices, voices, so many voices
Choices, choices, so many choices
Everybody is in authority
Magazines and the TV screens
If you look around, it might seem to be
We livin' in a state of confusion
Don't get caught up, it's all an illusion
It's just a test so you won't say yes
Why say no, when you can yes?
It's so easy, come on and say yes
You can change your life, if you can say yes
Not tomorrow but today, yes
Why say no, when you can yes?
It's so easy, come on and say yes

You can change your life, if you can say yes
Not tomorrow but today, yes
I know, I know
You can do what you wanna
Say what you wanna but
No, no, no, no
You can't make it out there alone
I know it's hard but listen to this song
Over and over, till ya get it in your heart
And you understand you can't
Can't live, can't breathe, can't be without Him
I'm tryin' to tell ya about Him
Why say no, when you can yes?
It's so easy, come on and say yes
You can change your life, if you can say yes
Not tomorrow but today, yes
Why say no, when you can yes?
It's so easy, come on and say yes
You can change your life, if you can say yes
Not tomorrow but today, yes
Yes, yes, yes, yes
Yes, yes, yes, yes
