Who Do You Love

What's Eating Gilbert

Oh, oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh
Oh, I wonder, "Who do you love?"Do you got a man that treats you right?
Let's you pick the place on your dates at night
Opens every door that you're going through
Tell him all the bad and make way for you
Oh, if he won't, you know that I wouldI see you there, walking by with no one by your side
And I wonder, "Who do you love?"Do you got a man that writes you songs?
Makes you fall in love when you sing along
Compliment the way your lips look now
When the words fall right out of your mouth
Oh, if he won't, you know that I wouldI see you there, walking by with no one by your side
And I wonder, "Who do you love?"
How can a girl, a girl like that
Be so alone and look so sad?
And I wonder, "Who do you love?"
(Well, alright!)Who-who-who do you love? [x3]Do you have a man that leaves you notes
Reminding you how without you his life's a joke?
Lowers his guard when you're in a fight
Tell you he's wrong even if he's right
Oh, if he won't, you know that I wouldI see you there, walking by with no one by your side
And I wonder, "Who do you love?"
How can a girl, a girl like that
Be so alone and look so sad?
And I wonder, "Who do you love?"
Who do you love? [x2]
