Plasticland

If you wonder why they're waiting
It's because they've been abused
Ask me now who are the guilty
And I'll say the ones confused
I water the walls and they grow
In a swirling??? that faces plaster
In a way they seem to give themselves to you
You're determined to attract them into you
Who can see the flowers moving
Someone's fell to let them dry
At their best they seem so soothing
But their??? can burn your eyes
I watch as my wall flowers grow
In a world that's changing rapidly flowing upside down
The amazed at other various collections
As you bend yourself in rows of glowing worms
You're dancing to their light
??? for days???

You just begun
You??? for days until you're crazy
It's one by one
You??? for days, your eyes are glazed
The deed is done
You have made your own decision
See them looking down on you
Playing tricks up on your vision
Scrolling from??? of???

I watch as my wallflowers grow
