Stop Runnin'

Black Stone Cherry

Hey, everybody out there in the real world
Yeah, I'm talkin' to you
Have you ever been lonely?
Have you ever been blue?Ain't no way to explain it
That thing they call the blues
We gotta get together people
If we're ever gonna make it throughSo stop runnin'
Away from everything
Stop runnin'
It's a better day, yeahSo maybe you ain't got a million bucks, it's okay
And somehow you're always down on your luck
Well, brothers and sisters I've been there too, yes, I amAnd if them old rainclouds won't leave you alone
And you're feelin' like you ain't got a place to call home
Start singing along and turn yourself aroundAnd stop runnin'
Away from everything
Stop runnin'
It's a better daySomewhere, somehow somebody's gonna [Incomprehensible] you
And all you gotta do is help them sing along
So they can understandStop runnin'
Away from everything
Stop runnin'
It's a better dayStop runnin' away
Stop runnin'
Away from everything
Stop runnin' awayStop runnin'
Away from everything
