

Innocent Again

Idle Cure

Nowhere to run nowhere to hide
Taken and helpless broken up inside
Feeling abused lost in the confusion
Disguise the shame, consume the blame
But nothing feels the same

I've tried to be strong...
But it's hard when your purity is gone...

Chorus

Innocent again, give me innocence again
And cause me to believe
Bring me innocence again, and hold me in Your arms
Take me to the mountain top once more

Some challenge the rules, use others as tools
Yearning to find love, I was the stubborn fool
You sought me out, erased my doubt
Sufficient grace, in your embrace, was offered up to me

The pain was so strong...
My heart has been broken for so long

Chorus

All that I am, all that I'll ever hope to be
I place before you now that you are near
Tough me with your life and I'll be innocent again...
Take me in your arms forever more...

Chorus
