Growing up Sucks

SonaOne

Close the door, cause I ain't going anywhere
Tonight I'm yours, party's over here
Till its bright outside and we can't see
Lookin at my eyes when I lookin at her lips
We so young never wanna get old
Screaming no no no... no no no...

I'm only 22
Feel like I'm 42
I wanna stay young
But not in boardin school
I'm only 22
Turnin 23
I know some 43 year old who prolly out envy me
Hey yo, I used to never go to class
Sober
And now I got class minus the homework
When I was 15 I couldn't wait to grow up
But now I think it sucks to be a grown up
I got to pay bills that I don't wanna pay
I got to make decision that I don't wanna make
I got to meet some people that I don't wanna meet
And head off to bed when I don't even wanna sleep
I just wanna wild out and live for the moment
Let's be a kid and havin simple emotions
But I'm still young never wanna get old
Screamin no no no... no no no

Close the door
Cause I ain't going anywhere
Tonight I'm yours
Party's over here
Till it's bright outside
We can't see
Lookin at my eyes
When i'm lookin at her lips
We so young never wanna get old
Screamin No no no

No no no

I was the kid who would always want to skip school
Never thought I'd say this, but now I'm kinda miss school
Underage in the club, thinkin it's cool
I miss the old days before they started playin Pitbull
Don't get it twisted though I'm still a pretty young dude
Gotta cut down on the cigarette and junk food
Yup, I'm thinkin relationship is scary
But you know you're getting old
When you're friends are getting married
Havin children, buyin houses
No, I can't keep up with that
Cause it's just a lot of numbers
And I really suck at maths
Even signin in on Twitter or FB is such a test
But I got responsibilities and really it be killing me
Life's a movie, but somehow I can't rewind the scene
Sometimes I wish I had a time machine
Cause I'm still young never wanna get old
Screamin no no no
No no no

Close the door
Cause I ain't going anywhere
Tonight I'm yours
We can't see
Lookin at my eyes
Screamin no no no
No no no

Open up your eyes
Open up your mind
Open up your heart
We gon' be here for awhile
Everybody's gettin old
I don't wanna get old
No no no

Till it's bright outside
We can't see

Lookin at my eyes
Screamin no no no
No no no

I don't wanna get old
Screamin no no no
No no no

Never wanna get
Never wanna get old

Never wanna get old, old, old, oo...
