

Win or Lose (feat. Ann Saunderson)

iLL BLU

Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose...You'll have to soldier on Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose...I'm not sorry that things turned out this way
Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose in a game of love
It's kind of crazy how the story's been Turn nothing into something
We wait a long time waiting for the right time
And still, we do the wrong thing
And no matter what goes on
We have to, yes, we have to soldier on
I'm walking in a straight line, walking in a straight line
Working things out in my mind, working things out in my mind
I'm walking in a straight line, working things out in my mind
Even when things go wrong, you'll have to soldier on Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose...Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose...
(I'm walking in a straight line)
Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose...
(Working things out in my mind) (x2)I'm walking in a straight line, walking in a straight line
Working things out in my mind, working things out in my mind
I'm walking in a straight line, working things out in my mind
Even when things go wrong, you'll have to soldier on You'll have to soldier on (x2)Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose...
