Into the Fire

Firewind

Here we are again, martyrs of the revolution
The countdown of the human pain
Nothing left to burn, witnessing the prosecution
Killing ourselves time and againSave me! Don't let them take my life from me
Help me! My fears become realityInto the fire
No need to pray for me
Into the fire
My tears are black so set me freeHellfire burns again, angels of this constitution
The day of reckoning we'll learn
We're marching to the end, to the final execution
This blackest day, there's no returnSave me! Don't let them take my life from me
Help me! Eternal pain is what I feelInto the fire
No need to pray for me
Into the fire
My tears are black so set me free
