

Rearrange

Decyfer Down

Ah...Don't try to rearrange,
What you cannot explain,
You think you know me,
But we both know better,
With every stone you throw,
You reach a higher low,
And every scar you leave just makes me stronger, Why do you rearrange,
When I'm so deranged, yeah,
Ah...
If you're blinded by hate,
Then rearrange yourself,
Ah...
All the colors you show,
It's hard to let go, yeah,
Ah...
If it's so hard to see,
Then rearrange yourself,
It's time to re-define,
Why you've been doing time,
Turn into all the things that lead you nowhere,
Take off your filthy crown,
And lay your weapons down,
Cause we all bleed the same,
And none come shameless Why do you rearrange,
When I'm so deranged, yeah,
Ah...
If you're blinded by hate,
Then rearrange yourself,
Ah...
All the colors you show,
It's hard to let go, yeah,
Ah...
If it's so hard to see,
Then rearrange yourself,
Oh, yeah,
When you're far from sober,
You grow a little colder,
Yeah,
Don't let it pull you under,

Don't lose yourself forever Why do you rearrange,

When I'm so deranged, yeah,

Ah...

If you're blinded by hate,

Then rearrange yourself,

Ah...

All the colors you show,

It's hard to let go, yeah,

Ah...

If it's so hard to see,

Then rearrange yourself,

Won't you rearrange yourself.
