

You

Stone Circle

You donâ€™t have to say it baby
Itâ€™s in your smile
You donâ€™t have to show me
Itâ€™s been over for a while
You can wish it back
You can turn it black
But you canâ€™t turn truth around
Baby, a factâ€™s a fact

You donâ€™t have to prove it baby
That you know best
Finish the next line â€“ itâ€™s ok, honey
I know the rest
You can wash it down
You can tinge it brown
But you canâ€™t fool me, baby,
Baby, I've been around!

What can I tell you that you donâ€™t know?
Where have you been, honey? I donâ€™t know
What can I tell you that you donâ€™t know?
Yeah

You donâ€™t have to hide behind those lies you tell
Brought me hope for nothing that the preacher sells
You just have to look baby, for a brighter day
But if you canâ€™t do something, get the hell out of the way!

What can I tell you that you donâ€™t know?
Where have you been, honey? I donâ€™t know
What can I tell you that you donâ€™t know?
Yeah

(whispered)
You donâ€™t have to say a word
It hits me like a dream
You donâ€™t have to lay the blame
Itâ€™s not for two, it seems
You can scream at me, until youâ€™re blue

(loud) But you canâ€™t be owned
Thereâ€™s nothing I can do

What can I tell you that you donâ€™t know?
Where have you been, honey? I donâ€™t know
What can I tell you that you donâ€™t know?
Yeah
