

On The Coldest Day In Hell

Asia

Do you remember years ago?
All our hopes would ebb and flow
We thought we'd find a promised land
Our footprints in the sandThe mysteries, the twists of fate
Have changed the path from love to hate
But won't erase sins of the past
They hide behind the maskIf I could conquer all our fears
Can forgiveness dry the tears?
If I falter, my soul I'll sell
On the coldest day in hellI'll never let you down
How can I tell you now?
But only heaven knows
I won't let you goI dream of demons through the night
A restless fever till morning light
My body's cold, my head's on fire
Give me back my life, ohKill this ghost inside of me
Let me sail on deep blue seas
A new beginning, another page
Dawn gives in to dayI will conquer all our fears
Let forgiveness dry the tears
If I falter, my soul I'll sell
On the coldest day in hellI'll never let you down
How can I tell you now?
But only heaven knows
I won't let you goI swear I'll stand my ground
How can I turn this 'round?
As this time heaven knows
I won't let you knowWhen I'm dreaming
I'm dreaming of you
When I'm breathing
I'm breathing with youWhen I'm dreaming
I'm dreaming of you
When I'm breathing
I'm breathing with youBut only heaven knows
I won't let you go
