

Tears

Imx

Yeah, yeah, oh
Tears, they keep falling from my eyes, from my eyes
Yeah, yeah
Baby girl you got me sittin' here goin' crazy
Oh yes you do, oh yes you do
Oh sweet lady a letter or a card will do
'Cause a brotha sure misses you
Tears, they keep fallin' from my eyes, from my eyes
And girl I don't know the reason why, the reason why
It could be that you left me here alone, here alone
And I need you right here in my arms to hold, arms to hold
Pretty one, pretty one I've been longing for your face
Can't no other girl take your place
Why your friends go and playa hate, I can't relate to what they say
It has broke us up and I can't believe that you're gone away
Tears, they keep fallin' from my eyes, from my eyes
And girl I don't know the reason why, reason why
It could be that you left me here alone, here alone
And I need you right here in my arms to hold, arms to hold
Tears, they keep fallin' from my eyes, from my eyes
And girl I don't know the reason why, reason why
It could be that you left me here alone, here alone
And I need you right here in my arms to hold, arms to hold
Pretty girl, why did you have to go?
Why you leave me so all alone?
Tears, they keep running down my face
No other girl will ever take your place
Pretty girl, why did you have to go?
Why you leave me so all alone?
Tears, they keep running down my face
'Cause no other girl will ever take your place
Tears, they keep fallin' from my eyes, from my eyes
And girl I don't know the reason why, reason why
It could be that you left me here alone, here alone
And I need you right here in my arms to hold, arms to hold
Tears, they keep fallin' from my eyes, from my eyes
And girl I don't know the reason why, reason why
It could be that you left me here alone, here alone
And I need you right here in my arms to hold, arms to hold
