

No Man Is Big Enough for My Arms

Ibeyi

No man in the world
No man in the world
The measure of any society
Is how it treats its women and girls
No man is big enough for my arms
No man in the world
No man is big enough for my arms
No man in the world
The measure of any society
Is how it treats its women and girls
We create
The smart, powerful
Creative, accomplished young women
We can fight
I'm here because of you
I'm here because girls like you inspire me
No man in the world
No man is big enough for my arms
No man in the world
Many of these girls have faced unthinkable obstacles just to go to school
No man is big enough for my arms
No man in the world
The measure of any society
Is how it treats its women and girls
Won't stand still
Your story is my story
Your story is my story
Won't be shamed
Your story is my story
Your story is my story
No man is big enough for my arms
And I, I told them they should disregard
Anyone who demeans or devalues them
And that they should make their voices
No man is big enough for my arms
No man in the world
No man in the world
And I told them that they deserve
To be treated with dignity and respect
And I, I told them that they should disregard anyone
Who demeans or devalues them
They should make their voices heard in this world
The measure of any society
Is how it treats its women and girls

No man in the world
