

Hold Me Now

Jonalyn Viray

Sometimes love is like a leap of faith
It's a choice we make
Made of chances that we take
One day I found myself right in between
All those so-called choices that I see
Maybe then I was confused
But you...Chorus:
Hold me now
Maybe I was wrong to let you go
Now I begin to understand the love you have for me
Please hold me now
I'll never make the same mistake again
To have and to hold you near
It's a chance I can't let go of once again Like a pain that keeps on hurtin' me
Every time I think of how things might have been
And I told myself that I can't live a lie
So I come to you
With all of me
Giving you the best I could, oh...Hold me now
Maybe I was wrong to let you go
Now I begin to understand the love you have for me
Please hold me now
I'll never make the same mistake again
To have you near
It's a chance I can't let go of once again How can I find the perfect words to say
Those things I wish I have said before
We decided to part ways
I can't deny what's true
And oh, I just can't live without you Hold me now
Maybe I was wrong to let you go
Now I understand
The Love you have for me back then
Oh, hold me now
I'll never make the same mistake again
To have you near It's a chance I can't let go of once again
It's a chance I can't let go of once again
