

Uncool

Courtney Love

Pretty face just grabbed the headlines
You leave me nothing but my name
And all the grief keeps multiplying
And I pretend to feel no pain Am I gonna lose baby, if I tell the truth?
Would it be uncool if I could write a love song?
I just wanna bleed, tear a hole in me
Spit out what I have held down oh, so long I get tired of the pleasure
My company's so cheap
Baby, take me from this tempest
Take me someplace so I can sleep I don't wanna die and I don't wanna live
Baby, I just want a chance to be with you
I tried, I love you
I swear to God I've never felt so alive Yeah am I gonna lose if I tell the truth?
Would it be uncool if I could write a love song?
I just wanna bleed, tear a hole in me
And every time you move and every time you breathe
Yeah, gotta write a love song Baby you're a freak show just like me
Baby, we are all born ugly
Gotta write a love song
Gonna make you cry, gonna go so deep
Tear the whirlwind baby, somewhere I can sleep
So I wonder why, so I wonder why? And I cry I wanna be uncool
I wanna be uncool Now I'm gonna make you cry
'Cause I'm gonna go so deep
I'm gonna tear this tempest, baby
And go somewhere I can sleep
Gonna make you love me
Gonna make you love me Yeah am I gonna lose if I tell the truth?
Would it be uncool if I could write a love song?
I just wanna bleed, tear a hole in me
And every time you move and every time you breathe
Yeah, gotta write a love song Baby you're a freak show just like me
Baby, we are all born ugly
Gotta write a love song
Gonna make you cry, gonna go so deep
Tear the whirlwind baby, somewhere I can sleep Wanna be uncool, wanna be uncool
I wanna write a love song
I wanna be uncool, wanna be uncool
I wanna write a love song

Wanna be uncool, wanna be uncool
Gonna be uncool
