Rabbit

Matt Duke

Every sentiment hangs around
No longer than a minute or two
I find I keep falling for love
But I cant seem to follow it throughSo run, little rabbit, run
Run, little rabbit, runI leave one good hand on the wheel
Been counting mile markers for days
Everything falls further behind
I can disappear in several waysSo run, little rabbit, run
Run, little rabbit, run
Run, little rabbit, runSleep through the morning
Don't wake me up
Don't wake me up
Sleep through the morning
One little man to one mighty sunTry to break away from yourself
Throw your broken bones in a heap
All your blood and guts are exposed
Your spirit has been begging to leaveSo run, little rabbit, run
Run, little rabbit, run
So run, little rabbit, run
Run, little rabbit, run
