

X Marks the Spot (feat. Nadine Shah)

Ghostpoet

Obviously, You made me see
Can't take this life for nothing

Let me be

All alone, I left my throne

If I don't try another way

Then I'll never knowx2

So I don't care anymore

But you say, no way

I don't care anymore

Oh you do, named me

There's a drawer in a room of a house that's calling your nameUsed to think you were true

But I was washed up, confused

Grasping, gasping, no room for hope

Nowadays, path seems clear

But no I won't turn around and celebrate

You always seem here

x2
