

Moontower

Death Lens

Moontower

Drunk at the beginning, plastered in the end
I couldn't remember where I left my friends
But I could tell you I love them, I need them so I never ever ever ever wanna let it go

(Chorus)

It all started in this place I know
And it's called the Moontower
Grab a beer from the liquor store
Each beer just for a dollar
Yeah I know that I'll get fucked up
Well at least within the hour
Blurred vision and a gagging pulse
Leaves me a sick hangover
Every little movement makes me wanna throw up
A little left and to the side, yeah the pain is enough
But yeah I love it, I need it, I never wanna lose it yeah I love it and I leave it and I never wanna abubububu(abuse it)
