

Coffee

Sylvan Esso

True, it's dance, we know the moves

 The bow, the dip, the woo

 Though the words are true

The state is old newsWrap me in your arms

 I can't feel it but

 Rock me in your arms

I can't feel it butGet up, get down

 Get up, get down

 Feel the turn of rotation and stop

 See the next one waiting

 Get up, get down

 Get up, get down

 Get up

Sentiments the same but the pair of feet changeI know my words will dry upon the skin

 Just like I name I remember hearing

 Wild winter, warm coffee

 Mom's gone, do you love me?

 Blazing summer, cold coffee

Baby's gone, do you love me?Wrap me in your arms

 I can't feel it but

 Rock me in your arms

I can't feel it butGet up, get down

 Get up, get down

 Feel the turn of rotation and stop

 See the next one waiting

 Get up, get down

 Get up, get down

 Get up

Sentiments the same but the pair of feet changeGet up, get down

 Get up, get down

 Feel the turn of rotation and stop

 See the next one waiting

 Get up, get down

 Get up, get down

 Get up

Sentiments the same but the pair of feet changeMy baby does the hanky panky

 My baby does

 My baby does the hanky panky

 My baby doesGet up, get down

Get up, get down
Feel the turn of rotation and stop
See the next one waiting
Get up, get down
Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiments the same but the pair of feet change
