

Chopsticks

Liz Phair

I met him at a party
And he told me how to drive him home
He said he liked to do it backwards
I said, "That's just fine with me
That way we can fuck and watch TV" It was four a.m. and the light was gray
Like it always is in paperbacks
He asked if I liked playing jacks
I told him that I was good to sixes
But all hell broke loose after that I told him that I knew Julia Roberts
When I was twelve at summer camp
We didn't say anything after that I dropped him off and I drove on home
'Cause secretly I'm timid
