Head Automatica

This is the legend of Christian PalkoAnswer me, body why do you ache me
To keep ambition alive?
Relentlessly, it's you forsaking me
But you'll never eat me aliveYou're never gonna see anything like me
You're never gonna see anything like meBreathlessly, I ran from a seething sheik
Two rats at odds for the prize
Believe you me, the cancer of which you speak
Will never eat me aliveYou're never gonna see anything like me
You're never gonna see anything like me
You're never gonna see anything like me
You're never gonna see anything like meIt's a thousand to one
It's two hands on one gun
Socialize, dollar prize, yelling onward, telling lies
Then you've got a thousand to oneAnd you've seen a thousand to one
I seen a fuck fest in the sun
It's American surprise, side of Islam, side of lies
Then you've got a thousand to one right hereYou'll never eat me alive
You'll never eat me aliveYou're never gonna see anything like me
Never gonna see anything like me
You're never gonna see anything like me
Never gonna see anything like meIt's been a crazy winter
It's gonna be a crazy summer
It's been a crazy winter
It's gonna be a crazy summer
