Sailing Ships

Whitesnake

Do you remember standing on the shore Your head in the clouds your pockets filled with dreams

Bound for glory on the seven seas of life

But the ocean is deeper than it seems The wind was with you when you left on the morning tide

You set your sail for an island in the sun

On the horizon, dark clouds up ahead

For the storm has just begunTake me with you, take me far away

And lead me to the distant shoreSail your ship across the water

Spread your wings across the sky

Take the time to see you're the one who holds the key

Or sailing ships will pass you by You cry for mercy when you think you've lost your way

You drift alone, if all your hope is gone

And find the strength and you will see

That you controlled your destiny after all is said and doneSo take me with you, take me far away

And lead me to the distant shoreSail your ship across the water

Spread your wings across the sky

Take the time to see you're the one who holds the key

Or sailing ships will pass

Sailing ships will pass you

Sailing ships will pass you by Take me with you, take me far away

We'll ride the wind across the sky

Spread your wings and you will see

You control, your destiny

So sailing ships don't pass you by So take me with you, take me far away

We'll ride the wind across the sky

Spread your wings and you will see

You control, your destiny

So sailing ships don't pass

Sailing ships don't pass you

Sailing ships don't pass you by Baby, baby, baby, baby

You'll find that you're the only one

Can sail your ship across the sky
