Jack Frost

stormy winds blow
inside of my head
blackened skies show
    wherever I am
    ambitions wasted
    stranded again
    all gone but hatred
in a weary soul I am but a shadow of my former self [Chorus:]
    creeping on
    in gloomy rain
in swamps of grey now I embrace my fear surrender unto pain
    agony unfolding
    and silence closing in
