Gypsy

DIO

She was straight from hell
But you never could tell
'Cause you were blinded by her light
She could crack your brain
With magic pain
And turn a paler shade of whiteWell I was on the free
Just me and me
And just about to sailWhen I heard the voice
Said you got a choice
The hammer or the nailYou'll be ridin'
You'll be ridin' on the gypsy
On the gypsyWell I rolled the bones
To see who'd own
My mind and what's withinAnd it's a given rule
That we're all fools
And need to have a little sinSo I'm ridin'
Well I'm ridin' on the gypsy
On the gypsy queenWell she was straight from hell
But you never could tell
'Cause you were blinded by the lightSo she cracked my brain
With magic pain
I'm still ridin'
Yes I'm ridin' on the gypsy
On the gypsy queen
She's mean
