

Juke Box Annie

Rory Gallagher

Jukebox Annie knows all the tricks, she waters down the whiskey,
She marks all the decks, she won't give me credit,
But she charms me to bits, she sure makes the time stand still.
Jukebox Annie heard all the tales, she always listens cause it never fails,
She's seen all the winos, who've run on the rails,
She sure takes away the chill. Well, you're the one I'm gonna miss, one smile from you can make the pieces fit,
I'm out here living by my wits, my heart's bound to overflow. Jukebox Annie won't you stay to play,
You're always acting like you're hard as nails,
Won't you listen to what I say, you can't keep this man at bay. Ow.... Well, Jukebox Annie knows all the names,
Of every lonely outlaw, and every wanted man.
Well, let me tell you brother, she's good for bail, She'll bring you back from hurtin', when it tips the scales. Jukebox Annie knows all the tricks, she waters down the whiskey,
She marks all the decks, she won't give me credit,
But she charms me to bits, she sure makes the time stand still. Jukebox Annie heard all the tales, she always listens cause it never fails,
She's seen all the winos, who've gone on the rails,
She sure takes away the chill. Oh, you're the one who kissed me, when I'm out here behind the drivin' wheel,
You know I think about you, quite a bit,
You sure keep away the chill. Jukebox Annie, Jukebox Annie. Yeah..yeah..yeah.
