Lied To

Against All Authority

More lies disguised, they're selling you
Vacant eyes tied tightly to the tube,
Sealed shut just like they wanted.
Truth's a ghost, we're all haunted
By the actions of those serving,
Believed they were deserving
Of our trust we were misled.
Devoured lies, we've been feed.Now I've got no sympathy,
Now I've got this rage in me.
I've gotta release, I just can't stop it,
Watch our blood drip from the pockets.
Of the thieves that rose to power,
Thought control from the towers.
Pull our strings push our buttons
At the mercy of the gluttons.You're being lied to...
You're being lied to...
You're being lied to...
You're being lied to...By the ones that you once trusted,
Promises have slowly rusted
Into what resembles just
Another pool of blood from you and me.Do you feel it coming?
Words spoken keep you numb and
Longing for some long forgotten change
To cleanse these spoken stains.
We all just fell in line,
We fall for it each time.
Never bite the feeding hand
That pulls the strings that tie these hands.Now is the time to cut it,
To take the mouth and shut it up.
Hold back the rising tide of
Well placed words just drawing files.
So feel this angry sound,
Overtake each town,
They cup their ears they can't take it,
You and I are gonna break it.You're being lied to...
You're being lied to...
You're being lied to...
You're being lied to...By the ones that you once trusted,
Promises have slowly rusted

Into what resembles just
Another pool of blood from you and me.You're being lied to...
We're being lied to...
I get the feeling
We're all being lied to.
You're being lied to...
We're being lied to...
Well, I get the feeling
We're all being lied to.
You're being lied to...
We're being lied to...
Well, I get the feeling
We're all being lied to.
You're being lied to...
We're being lied to...
I get the feeling
We're all being lied to.
