Land Of Immortals

Rhapsody of Fire

Hear the silence of the winds making your own destiny go and face the mirror of their sin Only brave hearts found the way breaking all the dragon's spell cross the Argon's glade with heart in handLand of immortals I wait for my day to reach the wisdom of your skies Land of immortals you must belong to me from here to eternityAnd between Elgard's hills near the ancient ruins of Kron you will face the trick of the old dwarf To obtain the second key you have to cross the bloody sea where the thirst of Tharos never endsLand of immortals I wait for my day
to reach the wisdom of your skies
from here to eternityHoly force of wisdom spread through all the air I shall breathe you forever to end this epic holy quest My way will be hard but I would do all to reach the valleys where true heroes ride beyond the ivory gatesLand of immortals I wait for my day
to reach the wisdom of your skies
from here to eternity
