A Love That Strong

Neal McCoy

If love was a river rushing down to the sea
I'd wanna jump right into the middle of it
Let it carry meIt's pulling me under, taking my breath away
Rolling with the flow, wherever it goes
Whatever it takesI wanna love that strong
I wanna love that wild
I wanna dig that deep
I wanna reach that high
One that'll last a whole life long
I wanna love that strongA man and a woman, sitting in a small cafe
They met fifty years ago in those same two chairs
On this very dayHe still brings her flowers, just to hear that little laugh
She still thinks he's a knight in shining armor
It's as simple as thatI wanna love that strong
I wanna love that wild
I wanna dig that deep
I wanna reach that high
One that'll last a whole life long
I wanna love that strongI wanna go that far
I wanna touch that fire
I wanna see forever in your eyesI wanna love that strong
I wanna love that wild
I wanna dig that deep
I wanna reach that high
One that'll last a whole life long
I wanna love that strongI wanna love that wild
I wanna dig that deep
I wanna reach that high
One that'll last a whole life long
I wanna love that strong
