

Glory, Glory

Rose Windows

We've been split right down the middle,
I'm not good at choosing sides
No one looks you in the eye
The world is on fire How can you explain when there's no end, there's no beginning
Ye' Either Satan or a sinnin'
It's a game nobody's winning! Looking through a lazy eye,
At a world that's just wasting my time
Shame, ain't never never gonna let live
There's no shame, ain't never never gonna let live Any psychopath that knows his math is figured out
Can save the world from burning, or just keep more for his self Cause what's more entertaining Than a ritual sacrifice?
On the shadow of his mountain with a Blood Moon on the rise! Looking through that burning sky
For a man who could save your life! Oh GLORY, GLORY
A change in the wind
Oh Hallelujah, we're all insane
You been let out, so play the part
You been let out, so you can start
To make your lives worth living
No GLORY, GLORY
A change in the wind
Oh Hallelujah, we're all insane
You been let out, so play the part
You been let out, so you can start
To make your lives worth living! Shame, ain't never never gonna let live!
Shame, ain't never never gonna let live!
