Drowning In My Tears

Sylver

I need so much strength
To cut me loose
For this kind of life
I'll no longer chooseUnquenchable thirst
Keeps me alive
I fight for your love
A war to the knifeBut you'll never see
I won't let you see
But you'll never see
The raindrops in my eyesDrowning in my tears
I'm drowning in my tears
All those nights, all these years
I'm drowning in my tears
Drowning in my teras
I'm drowning in my tears
Save my soul, kill my fears
I'm drowning in my tearsOur story's been told
Last flight of the dove
But I can't subdue
My yearning for loveUnquenchable thirst
Keeps me alive
I fight for your love
A war to the knifeBut you'll never see
I won't let you see
But you'll never see
The raindrops in my eyesDrowning in my tears
I'm drowning in my tears
All those nights, all these years
I'm drowning in my tears
Drowning in my teras
I'm drowning in my tears
Save my soul, kill my fears
I'm drowning in my tears
