Everything Will Be Alright

Faithless

I believe in you and me I'm coming to find you If it takes me all night Wrong until you make it right And I won't forget you At least I'll try And run, and run tonight Everything will be alright I was out shopping for a doll To say the least, I thought I've seen them all But then you took me by surprise I'm dreaming 'bout those dreamy eyes I never knew, I never knew So take your suitcase, 'cause I don't mind And baby doll, I meant it ever time You don't need to compromise I'm dreaming 'bout those dreamy eyes I never knew, I never knew But it's alright Everything will be alright Will be alright
