

I Can See My House From Here

Steven Page

Jesus came to me last night to tell me everything'll be all right, he said,
"Thank you for rolling the stone, but you're gonna have to go it alone."
His halo light up the room
Blazes fire from white to blue
He said, "Can't keep the damn thing aglow, even if it's only for show."(Hallelujah) From hello goodbye
(Here I stand) To Helen Wheels
(Hare Krishna) Sing Hosannah
(Oh my Lord) So that's the deal
I feel like I've been here before
You know what happens when God closes a door
You think mortality's hell
He's boarded up the windows as well
I'm done with raising the dead
I'd rather tour with them instead
I waited too long for my wish
Jesus Christ, I'd settle for fish(Hallelujah) Mother Mary (Here I stand) You had me
(Hare Krishna) And no religion
(Oh my Lord) So let it beTurn your blood back into wine
And then forget you were once divine
And if you can't, you know it's a lie,
Goodbye my Lord,
Goodbye,
My Lord
Mmm, my Lord
I really wanna trade this perfect life in the sky
To make a mess of things and not know why
Camels, needles, haystacks, and stuff
Come on, don't you think we've all heard enough
We've needed someone like you
Self-satisfied but also easily bruised
Hey, have you heard the good news?
We're gonna make you king of the Jews(Hallelujah) The dream is over (Here I stand) So I me mine
(Hare Krishna) Won't be the same now
(Oh my Lord) End of the line

(Hallelujah) I'm sick of holding your hand
(Here I stand) See that single sign of prints in the sand

(Hare Krishna) I just assumed that you'd know

(Oh my Lord) You've always had to go it alone
We're on our way home
Goin' home(Steven came to me last night)
