

You'll Never Leave Harlan Alive

Darrell Scott, Danny Thompson And Kenny Malone

In the deep dark hills of Eastern Kentucky
That's the place where I traced my bloodline
And it's there I read on a hillside gravestone
"You'll never leave Harlan alive" Oh my grandfather's Dad crossed the Cumberland Mountains
Where he took a pretty girl to be his bride
Said, "Won't you walk with me out of the mouth of this holler
Or we'll never leave Harlan alive" Where the sun comes up about ten in the mornin'
And the sun goes down about three in the day
And you'll fill your cup with whatever bitter brew you're drinkin'
And you spend your life just thinkin' of how to get away No one ever knew there was coal in them mountains
Till a man from the northeast arrived
Waving hundred dollar bills, said, "I'll pay you for your minerals"
But he never left Harlan alive Grandma sold out cheap and they moved out west of Pike ville
To a farm where Big Richland River winds
And I bet they danced them a jig and they laughed and sang a new song
"Who said we'd never leave Harlan alive" But the times got hard and tobacco wasn't selling
And old Granddad knew what he'd do to survive
He went and dug for Harlan coal and sent the money back to Grandma
But he never left Harlan alive Where the sun comes up about ten in the mornin'
And the sun goes down about three in the day
And you'll fill your cup with whatever bitter brew you're drinkin'
And you spend your life digging coal from the bottom of your grave You'll never leave Harlan alive
