

Are You Sad

Our Lady Peace

Your life has been so hard
It's dried up
Angels can't keep guard
And I'm trying to reach your hand But I'm on fire, I never meant
To fade away, away
Oh, just stop pretending
When they say you're nothing Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
Are you locked in your room?
You shouldn't be Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
Are you locked in your room?
You shouldn't be I'm drowning inside your head
Help me to answer, help understand
Why it's been so long
Since we talked like friends? Oh, please forgive me, I'm just a man
Who's made mistakes
Oh, just stop pretending
When they say you're nothing Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
Are you locked in your room?
You shouldn't be Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
Are you locked in your room?
You shouldn't be Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
Are you locked in your room?
You shouldn't be Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
Are you locked in your room?
You shouldn't be You shouldn't be
You shouldn't be Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
You shouldn't be Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
You shouldn't be Are you sad?
Are you holding yourself?
