

Horseshoe

Withered Hand

Here I go, pigeon talk to the feather weight fight
And just before they knocked me down
Did you put a horseshoe in my glove?
Here I stand with a face like somebody died When you're ignoring me
How could I tell you that I love you?
I couldn't tell you that I do
Here I stand hand in hand with the name that's won Just like he's listening to me
Please don't put a shadow on the line
So young
Please don't put a shadow on the line
We can kill our friends, we can sing a song and then dance again
Tell me, was it easy to pretend like nobody is dead
Nobody you love will ever die Here I go, pigeon talk to the great divide
It's like the same old story, how?
Did you put a horseshoe in my glove?
I wear your love, wear your love like a souvenir But you said you'll live for me here
And know that there is not much more to love
I've been drinking, when I drink it's like I just cannot see
That you were waiting up for me Did you paint the luster on the sun, the siding sun?
Did you paint the luster on the sun for everyone?
For every sun, the sun, the sun
For every sun the song I sung
We can get up, friends, we can sing a song that never ends
Again, tell, me was it easy to pretend that nobody is dead
Nobody you love will ever die We can kill our friends, we can sing a song and then dance again
Tell me, was it easy to pretend like nobody is dead
Nobody you love will ever die
