Geneva (Why is it so wrong?)

Martin Levac

Why is it so wrong
to feel this way
the way I 'm feeling now?
I use to be so strong time and life just seems to pass me by has it been so long ? Has it been so long so long now?

My mind feel so numb and all these memories fade away now
how long you've been gone ?
Can you help me recall days when I could see light.....

What else can go wrong?
I can't think straight it's all confusion now
pictures of my home?
Give me a clue 'cos there's none I recognise family of my own no? To tell I belong here and now.

What did you look like ?
The feel , the touch , the scent you're wearing now , use to be so strong now things disappear from my mind
I can't see the light â€¦.....

I fell so alone
it's been this way for I don't know how long now
in this empty zone
I forgot every day of my like there use to be someone no? Besides me all along , there's no one now

Soon all will be gone
I won't remember what we've said so now
tell me what went wrong ?
And who's the lady in this picture?
Help me tonight.....
