Lovin' Me

BRS

Oooo
Now there are days when I dont have a clue where to find me
My shadow feels like a stranger lagging behind me, i feel like a king cept
I cant get a break, bad timing.
But the reason the questions and my second guessing, dont hang around to long
You keep lovin me, lovin me, lovin me,lovin me, lovin me baby
you keep lovin me, lovin me, lovin me, lovin me, lovin me baby
I can step right into the great unknown and Always finding my way back home you keep lovin me lovin me, luvin me lovin me lovin me baby

Its so crazy no matter how much your pouring.
You seem to find a way to fit a little bit more in
You smile that smile and it feels like a brand new morning, your bound and determine and but i dont deserve it but god knows where i would be.
If you didnt keep
Chorus
Life can take you, turn you, twist you right in two, oh bring it on, I got a you
Chrous
You keep lovin me
Oh baby
Chorus
