

The Truth

Mansions on the Moon

It's another long night and it doesn't feel right
'cause the same old thing we're doing it again but I got my good friends and their arms are open and they're hoping it will work out it the end Sunday morning and i wake up yawning 'cause the weekend makes me feel like an old man yeah i got some problems but we all got em some things i do i know that you don't understand I don't always tell the truth
but I do when I say I love you
I don't always tell the truth but I do when I say i love you it's another long day and I feel the same way like I'm running just to say ion the same place been stuck in red tape but I'll win the long race I can't wait to see the look upon your face I don't always tell the truth
but I do when I say I love you
I don't always tell the truth
but I do when I say i love you
I don't always tell the truth
but I do when I say I love you
I don't always tell the truth
but I do when I say i love you
I don't always tell the truth
but I do when I say I love you
I don't always tell the truth
but I do when I say i love you
