Lost Disciples

The BellRays

Here we are nowhere
Surrounded by space
Angels of legends
Have taken our placeWe had deliverance
The moment passed
These lost disciples
Are leading at lastWe shout a hymn
To the earth and the birds
To the lost disciples
Who don't know the wordsStrange collision
Of heaven and hell
A bastard vision
We know too wellOur emotions
Are all second hand
Belong to an ocean
Misplaced in the sandWe are nowhere at last
