

Give It Up (feat. Salt Ashes)

Cruels

I don't need your honesty
I just want your love
And save your thousand promises It's all enough
Just want you here tonight You owe me your attention
I won't wait cause you owe me
Don't you feel an obsession?
It burns again
You owe me Just give it up 4x I don't need your honesty
I just want your love
And save your thousand promises
It's all enough
Just want you here tonight Just give it up You owe me your attention
I won't wait cause you owe me (just give it up)
Don't you feel an obsession?
It burns again
You owe me (just give it up) You owe me your attention
I won't wait cause you owe me
Don't you feel an obsession?
It burns again
You owe me (2x) Just give it up (5x) It makes me love
It makes me love (oohooohoooh) 2x Don't you feel an obsession?
That burns again
You owe me You owe me your attention
I won't wait cause you owe me
Don't you feel an obsession?
It burns again
You owe me Just want you (now)
Just want you (5x) I don't need your honesty
I just want your love
And save your thousand promises
It's all enough
Just want you here tonight
